AIWG Research Group “Islam and Digitality“

Online Workshop – Memory in Digital Spaces

Islam and Digitality

Goethe University Frankfurt am Main
5.11. – 7.11.2025 (via Zoom)

Please note that the lecture “Jewish Post-Holocaust Philosophies: Challenges for a Jewish-Christian Discourse on Memory“ by Christian Wiese, scheduled within the programme for Wednesday, 5 pm, will not take place.

Thursday, 6.11.2025, 17:00 – 18:30
Keynote 2: Andrew Hoskins: “Forgetting in the Digital and AI Era“

Program:

Thursday, 6.11.2025

9:00 – 10:00
Akif Tahiiev (Frankfurt): “Politicization of Sacred History: Reimagining Early Shi‘i Narratives on Instagram“

10:00 – 11:00
Nadeem Elias Khan (Frankfurt): “History as Self-assurance in Sunni Revivalist Songs – Narratives, Visuals, Contexts“

11:15 – 12:15
Fouad Gehad Marei (Frankfurt): “On the Promises and Perils of Ritual and Memory in Religious Virtual Environments: VR Kabala as an example“

12:15 – 13:15
Christoph Günther (Erfurt): “You wake up in the time of the Prophet.“ Travelling back in time with the help of AI“

14:30 – 15:30
Lale Diklitaş (Frankfurt): “Memory Practices of German-speaking Muslims on Instagram“

15:30 – 16:30
Jasmin Eder (Frankfurt/Erfurt): “Ahmadiyya on Social Media“

Friday, 7.11.2025

9:00 – 10:00
Ali Aghaei (Berlin): “Digital Hadith: Structuring and Analyzing Shi‘i Hadith Transmission Networks“

10:00 – 11:00
Mohammad Gharaibeh (Berlin): “Hadith apps“

For more information, visit islamdigitality.com

Zoom-Link:

GOETHE UNIVERSITÄT FRANKFURT AM MAIN

UNIVERSITÄT ERFURT

HUMBOLDT-UNIVERSITÄT ZU BERLIN

}aiwg{ Akademie für Islam in Wissenschaft und Gesellschaft

Gefördert durch:
Bundesministerium für Forschung, Technologie und Raumfahrt